CORAM : S.C.DHARMADHIKARI, J.

DATE : 10th April 2006

PC :

1. Although this application was kept for dismissal, now the parties have settled the matter and are tendering consent terms.

2. The decree-holders/plaintiffs have taken out this Chamber Summons in execution of the decree passed in their favour.

3. The judgement debtors are entitled to right in certain feature films and it is agreed that their right, title and interest therein shall stand transferred in favour of the decree holders and the Laboratories who are impleaded as respondents to this Chamber Summons, would transfer the rights in their records in favour of the decree holder. Upon such transfer being indicated in the records of the Laboratories, the parties have agreed that the attachment which has been levied on the immovable properties, would stand raised and the Court Receiver would stand discharged without passing accounts but on payment of his costs, charges and expenses. In that event, even the order of injunction which is passed in favour of decree-holder and against judgement debtor, would stand vacated. Thus, the understanding is that all undertakings being complied with, even the execution application would come to an end and the decree would stand marked satisfied fully and completely leaving nothing to be done in pursuance thereof.

4. The consent terms which are drawn up have been signed after they are explained to the parties. There are undertakings of defendants 2 and 4 recorded in clauses 5, 6 and 7 of these terms which are accepted. Defendants 2 and 4 are present in the Court.

5. Consent terms taken on record marked "X" for identification. Order in terms of consent terms.
